Symbols are powerful energetic tools, as they stimulate an emotional response. Religious symbols like the cross and the Star of David represent powerful religious traditions. A heart is a symbol of love, given on Valentine's Day to special friends and loved ones. Countries use symbols to arouse feelings of patriotism.

Some symbols instill fear, like the skull and crossbones. Symbols can be used for any purpose. In Modern Western Geomancy, practiced by Maggie and Nigel Percy, symbols are used to create positive outcomes and to transform noxious energy into beneficial energy.

The special symbol devised by Nigel was dowsed for effectiveness. You may make copies of this symbol and share it with friends. Use it in as many ways as you can think. Reduce the size or enlarge it. Carry on your person. Wear it in your pocket or shoes. Place it in your desk at work, by your computer, in your car or in your purse.

We encourage you to share the symbol, but we ask that you keep our contact information and copyright symbol on any copies you make
